Australian Eurasian
Association of WA Inc.

Dear Members,

A pleasant afternoon was had at our Mother's Day luncheon on Sunday the 5th May. The club gifted a total of 63 envelopes containing $5 worth of Lotterywest Scratchies, to all the member mothers, and we are glad to hear there were some winners!

Richard and Bala, thank you so much for entertaining us with a great selection of songs, all of which were enjoyable and pleasant to listen to. We hope to have you both volunteer again, sometime in the year ahead.

I can't begin enough, to thank the musicians, who volunteer their time to entertain us at our Sunday lunches. We are just asking for one Sunday in the year, but of course would gladly accept if you can manage another time as well.

Our next lunch will be held on 9th June. Come and join us for a great selection of dishes, and to catch up with friends. The fabulous Bobby Beins will be entertaining us with his smooth vocals.

Please don't forget our Annual General Meeting will be held on Sunday 23rd June at 10:30am. We urge members to attend. A formal notice of meeting has been sent to all financial members and some information will also be included in this current newsletter.

A big thank you to our hard working committee members, and all the volunteers who help set up and stay back, after any of our functions/lunches to help pack up chairs and tables and leave the hall clean. With our Sunday lunches, thank you to all the kitchen staff who leave the kitchen spotless. You work tirelessly behind the scenes and volunteer silently, but play a huge part in these events!

Warmest regards
Kay Klass
President
